📋 OBJECTIVE

Production-focused Full Stack Developer dedicated to delivering end-to-end commercial web platforms. I bring hands-on experience in complex data management and system architecture, proven by the successful launch of ghotulstays.com. I specialize in utilizing the MERN stack to build highly responsive and user-centric applications.

📁 EXPERIENCE

Ghotul, Full Stack Developer Intern, ghotulstays.com

10/2025 – Present | 12 months

Guwahati, India (Remote)

- Architected and deployed a production-grade hospitality management platform to Hostinger VPS, replacing 100% of the client's manual reservation operations.
- Engineered room booking system with real-time availability management and DB-level locking (PostgreSQL SELECT FOR UPDATE) to prevent race conditions.
- Built staff management portal with role-based access control — owner, manager, and staff roles with distinct interfaces and API-level authorization.
- Integrated Razorpay payment gateway end-to-end: order creation → checkout → HMAC-SHA256 webhook signature verification → booking confirmation.
- Implemented JWT authentication with refresh token rotation and bcrypt password hashing; refresh token stored in httpOnly cookie to prevent XSS.
- Configured Nginx as reverse proxy, PM2 for process management, and UptimeRobot for uptime monitoring on production infrastructure.
- Tech Stack: React.js, Node.js, Express.js, PostgreSQL, Firebase, JWT, Razorpay, Nginx, PM2, Hostinger VPS
